Directions: Use the Dolch Third Grade flashcards or Dolch word sheet to assess each student's ability to read the words. If the student reads the word quickly without sounding it out, place a check in the box next to the word. If the word is misread or can't be read fluently, leave the box blank. Reassess again at the end of the year using the same sheet. The first box is for the Fall Assessment, and the second box is for the Spring Assessment. Once a word is mastered, it does not need to be reassessed.
